

CHARLES BARTLETT SCHOLARSHIP

Charles (Charley) E. Bartlett was born September 16, 1913 in Lewis Township of Gove County, Kansas.

Charley was a farmer and rancher, an avid fisherman and a self taught musician. He enjoyed playing the guitar, fiddle and banjo. He played with numerous bands for dances.

Charley was reared on a farm south of Grinnell in what was known as the Gunnery Range. He attended Swedish and Plum Creek grade schools and Healy High School.

On June 2, 1936, Charley married Bertha Moss and they both were lifetime residents of Gove County. They moved to Campus, Kansas in 1974. Bertha and Charley were married 61 years before her passing in 1997. Charley continued to live in Campus until his death in May of 2005.
